THE POLITICS OF INTEGRATED MANAGEMENT SYSTEM

Our politics of Integrated Management System is arising from our business policy, and our goals from Integrated Management Systems are arising from our business goals. The policy of the Integrated Management System corresponds to the purpose and context of the organization and includes our constant commitment to meet the applicable requirements and continuous improvement of the Integrated Management System.

The essence of the policy of the Integrated Management System is that quality and affordable services with the rational engagement of all resources, meet all the requirements of customers/users and stakeholders and exceed their expectations, while protecting: safety and health of employees, information and energy stability of the company and does not endanger the environment, and to fully implement all compliance obligations, including domestic laws and regulations and regulations of the European Union.

The general goal of quality is: clear positioning on the market of Serbia and beyond as the company that is recognizable for quality and timely services and competitive prices.

The general goal of environmental protection is: functioning of all business and work processes without environmental incidents and with full commitment to environmental protection, including pollution prevention, and especially control of waste generation and movement until delivery to operators, as well as continuous improvement of environmental performance.

The general goal of occupational health and safety: functioning of all business and work processes without injuries at work, without occupational diseases, and without work-related diseases, with a constant commitment to eliminating hazards and reducing OH&S risks, consulting and employee participation, and commitment to injury prevention and employee health disorders.

The general energy goal is: procurement of energy-efficient products and services, with which, with the engagement of all necessary resources, constantly improve the energy performance of the company with the support of designing energy processes, activities, and operations.

The general goal of information security is: to constantly meet (fulfill) the defined applicable requirements related to information security, thus protecting the information of companies and other stakeholders from loss and uncontrolled leakage.

The policy of the Integrated Management System provides a framework for setting all IMS goals supports the strategic direction of the company provides guidelines for the behavior of all employees and the company's management has the task to convey its guidelines to all employees, stakeholders, and the wider community for its fully implementation.

The Director of the company is responsible for defining and interpreting the Business Policy and the Policy of the Integrated Management System and all employees in the company are responsible for its implementation in proportion to their positions, responsibilities, and authorities.

In Subotica
March the 1st2021

Acting Director

Ognjen Vasiljević

© SVA PRAVA ZAŠTIĆENA